

Athletics Complex

PHASE ONE

The first phase of the athletics complex, including all 14 planned weight racks, has been in use since Fall 2020, serving the physical education department and athletic training of all ACA athletes. The new space is more than five times larger than our old weight room. The safety and development of our student athletes is now more fully realized thanks to this space.

For more information, contact
Advancement@AshevilleChristian.org